

am Freir

Pam Freir, columnist for the Victoria Times Colonist, offers up a feast of gastronomic memories, laughter in Laughing With My Mouth Full.

Wednesday, April 19 7:30 pm NVCL

Jack Whyte

Best-selling novelist Jack Whyte sets the timeless story of King Arthur in a realistic historical context in the A Dream of Eagles series.

Thursday, April 20 7:30 pm WVML

Robinson

Eden Robinson, a member of the Haisla First Nation, pleases the many fans of her novel Monkey Beach with a newly-published novel of gritty urban life, Blood Sports.

Friday, April 21 7:30 pm NVCL

Jean Barman

B.C. historian Jean Barman turns her attention to hidden stories in Stanley Park's Secret: The Families of Whoi Whoi, Kanaka Ranch and Brockton Point.

Monday, April 24 7:30 pm WVML

y Scofield

Poet, activist and teacher Gregory Scofield is the author of four poetry collections and an autobiography, Thunder through My Veins: Memories of a Metis Childhood.

Tuesday, April 25 7:30 pm NVDL - Capilano Branch

Peter Robinson

Author of the popular, award-winning, Chief Inspector Alan Banks mystery novels, Yorkshire-born Peter Robinson joins us from his Toronto home.

Wednesday, April 26 7:30 pm WVML

Granfield

Join historian Linda Granfield, author of Brass Buttons and Silver Horseshoes: Stories from Canada's War Brides, in celebrating 2006, the Year of the War Bride.

Thursday, April 27 2:00 pm Mollie Nye House
940 Lynn Valley Rd.
North Vancouver

Karsten Heuer

In Being Caribou, film and book, wildlife biologist Karsten Heuer recounts his epic five month, 15,000 km journey with his wife following the Porcupine Caribou herd in 2003.

Thursday, April 27 7:30 pm NVCL

e Giardini

In Vancouver lawyer Anne Shields Giardini's first novel The Sad Truth About Happiness, she reveals an attractive curiosity about the infinite variety in people's lives, sad and happy."

Friday, April 28 7:30 pm NVDL - Capilano Branch

Aislinn Hunter

Poet, novelist and short fiction writer Aislinn Hunter teaches creative writing at Kwantlen University. Reviewers say "slippery wit and high literary cool."

Phone to book a free 1/2 hour consultation 604-987-4471.

Saturday, April 22 1:00 - 5:00 pm NVDL Parkgate Branch
Sunday, April 23 1:00 - 5:00 pm NVCL
Saturday, April 29 1:00 - 5:00 pm WVML